Dear Mr. Armentrout,

I wish there were time to adequately answer all the encouraging letters like yours. They do help, they do mean something, and we do appreciate the..

When you see WHITEWASH II, which is now at the printer's, you will know how right your original feelings about the Commission members being their own kinds of Patsys really is.

Whether I'll be able to accept your invitation to drive around Chicago I do not know. I'd like to and it may soon be possible, for I'm to be there 12/13 to be on the Jerry Williams show, in debate with Merriman Smith, if he shows, or otherwise. But I suppose I'll have to keep the rest of the day clear in the event I can arrange another promotion of some sort.

It is my personal belief that there were three different conspiracies: to kill; what the Dallas authorities then did; and the government obfuscation of what really happened. As I said, when you see the new book, you'll see the evidence that came from the Commission's files and record.

Irv Kupcinet and the nature of his attack or his medium are unknown to me. I presume his location is Chicago. I haven't seen his particular slander. Smith has declined to debate me at the National Press Club. Enough proof? And he was wrong on just about everything, including the weather and where he was in the motorcade.

Again, thanks.

Sincerely

Harold Weisberg
